Yeehaw, Y'all!

Well, here we are and it's back to school time already! I don't have children to get up and out the door. But most of my friends who are moms are suffering from a combination of relief and sadness, whether their child is starting kindergarten or college.

This time last year I thought I would be a full time student by the time Fall 2011 came around. That was the plan, but you know they say life is what happens when you are busy making plans. Financially it just isn't possible this year, and I know I am not the only one who finds myself in the position of being on a tight budget. It's definitely something everyone is facing to an extent right now.

I really appreciate the fact that all of you have devoted your time and resources to support BPW. Our membership is growing! Pam confirmed our roster at 28 yesterday and I am headed out this morning to (hopefully) sign up a new member. I hope to see us hit 35 members this year, and am working to make it happen. But I need help from everyone.

We've had wonderful response to our lunch time meetings and have had the best attendance numbers I've seen during my 2 years here. This month's meeting will again be a lunch meeting and in September we're having a "Round Up the Membership" event for all members to enjoy and bring prospective members to see what BPW is all about. There are more details about the event inside, and if you can volunteer or assist in some way, let myself or Helen Pearson know.

The Executive Committee is here to work for YOU, the members, so we need your help and your feedback. To that end I have added a list of committees, chairs, and members so far in the space below. I would like for everyone to find a committee that they feel interests them to serve on this year. I know some of you don't have a lot of free time, and that is fine, but if you do and you feel you could give some to BPW please sign up with the committee chair. The time commitments are usually minimal, especially with a full committee, and the rewards of serving and spending time with fellow members are so huge.

I hope everyone enjoys the last of the August weather. I am ready for cooler temperatures, football, and some fall fun! See you at the meeting!

Marsha

FRANKLIN-SIMPSON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

MUSTANG MANIA AT THE DOWNS

WAS BPW MANIA!

BPW Volunteers tried showing some leg, but still didn't get to ride in a Mustang. Probably because we were too hot and sweaty!
(LtoR) Marsha Herndon, Rachel Cothorn, Debbie Johnson, Amy Ellis and Brownie Bennett.

A great job and many thanks to all the members who volunteered at Mustang Mania. The Chamber has expressed their thanks to us for the wonderful job BPW members consistently do in support of events like Mustang Mania.

It was a sweltering hot day in June, but volunteers served with smiles on their faces and assisted cars coming in from 7am - Noon.

Jim Goodlad enjoyed his day under the tent surrounded by BPW ladies.

Chamber Deejays being silly.

Marsha and Brownie show off the t-shirt that Marsha designed for the Chamber event, while Debbie relives her youth.

New Meeting Schedule!

As announced at the June meeting, our lunch time meetings are so popular we've decided to do more of them in the upcoming year. The executive committee voted to meet in the evenings in odd numbered months and during lunch for the even numbered months.

The only variation from this will be during special events in October and December where our meeting schedule varies anyway. I hope this will be convenient for everyone and enable our members to attend more meetings.

ROUND UP MEMBERSHIP

FRANKLIN BPW
2011-2012

September's meeting will be a "Membership Drive" event rather than a traditional business meeting. Helen Pearson and Marsha Herndon are working to secure a venue, hopefully the Brickyard, where we can host an after work event to invite all members and potential members to join us from 5-7pm. We'd like everyone to enjoy appetizers and have a drink and socialize for a change.

Helen is working on obtaining items from local merchants for door prizes, and we will be drawing for winners every 15 minutes. Everyone in attendance will receive a goodie bag. Two memberships will be given away, and we will have information on BPW, our members, and what our club does displayed at the event.

If your business or employer would like to donate items for goodie bags or a door prize, please contact Helen Pearson. And please, make plans to attend!
