

Glasgow BPW September Newsletter

The ECHO

September is an exciting time for Glasgow BPW as we are preparing for the annual membership meeting, Arts & Crafts Fair and National Business Women's Week.

Mary Beth Jessie, Membership chair, and her committee members are planning an outstanding meeting on September 4th. Everyone has been challenged to invite at least one guest to the meeting, and please remember to bring your bag of candy for Samothrace Club. Dawn Boyter and Karin Baldwin-Carroll are finalizing plans for our annual Arts & Crafts Fair on September 27th. This is one of our largest fundraisers and we will need your assistance volunteering, promoting and creating excitement around the event. Our fundraisers help fund the Young Careerist program, scholarships and donations to organizations such as Community Medical Care. Melanie Watson and Jamie Smith are beginning the planning process for National Business Women's Week (NBWW) which occurs October 20 - 24.

I look forward to working with all of you on these upcoming events, please make every effort to join us in promoting Glasgow BPW within the community. Together, we can Build Professional Women.

Best Wishes,

You are cordially invited...

To our September 2008 meeting of the Glasgow Business and Professional Women's Club.

*We will come together on Thursday, September 4th at 6:00 p.m. at the Glasgow Golf &
Country Club.*

The focus of this month's meeting is to grow our membership. I have challenged every member to invite someone. If all 51 of us were to invite one person and 1/2 of those came and 1/2 of those joined, we would have 64 members going into the club's busiest time of year. Wouldn't that be great!!!!

*Please RSVP to Mary Beth Jessie by Tuesday, September 2nd at noon via reply to this email or by phone at 670.3066.
Please include the number of guests you are bringing.*

Automatic RSVP's

Here is a list of members who have signed up for the automatic RSVP option. Remember, if your name is listed below and you cannot attend the meeting, please let me know. We pay monthly for the amount of people who have RSVP'd so please hold yourself responsible for the cost of dinner in your absence unless you let us know. If you would like to be placed on the auto-RSVP list, please indicate in your reply/call.

Samothrace Update

Sherrie Burgess and the entire membership committee are dedicated to this endeavor and are working on a plan to market our club to the young ladies at the Western Kentucky University's Glasgow Regional campus during the week of September 15th.
There will be a sign-up sheet ready at our September meeting and we will ask every member to dedicate at least 1 hour that week to the development of this club.
Sherrie Burgess is the "go-to" girl with questions regarding this project and can be reached at 270-646-3598 or by emailing her at sherrie.burgess@barren.kyschools.us.
