President's Corner

Greetings to all

My hope is that this newsletter finds all well with each of you.

We are having a bit of rain and I can see buttercups springing up as well as other spring flowers, it will not be long before it is time to mow the lawn.

Thanks to all of you that collected money for the Heart Walk. Jean Tuitele, Chair and other members were at the Bradford Square Mall for a fun morning. The club turned in $1,330 with Lena Wann being the top fund raiser for our group. Congratulations to Glynn Ward top individual outside the club that turned in $3,200. Fort Campbell Credit Union was first overall with Wal Mart Distribution Center in second place. Best t-shirt was by JSMC.

With March being Kentucky Professional Women's Month, Mary Fletcher, Chair will have more information including results for Woman of the Year.

After the collection of unsold pecans around the area, Juanita Martin has suggested that we get a table at the old fair grounds yard sale and sell them along with cook books and other sweet treats if possible. This will take place Saturday, April 2nd. More information will be available at our March 17th meeting. Also, please bring snacks for JSMC to our March meeting.

Diane Croney-Turner is considering state treasurer for BPW and we wish her the best.

Last but not least for March I am looking forward to as many as possible joining me at church in Fairview at 11:00 a.m. on March 13th. We will have lunch. Do not forget this is the beginning of day light savings time. So Spring forward one hour.

Also, remember our club members and their families in their time of illness and bereavement.

See you soon.

President Dorothy

“I Hear What You Don’t Say”

By Dorothy Tolliver
Published in Creative Writing
KEHA 2010
“All Things Kentucky”

Slamming doors and talking back these are the things alluded to,
but I hear what you don’t say.

Excuses for what happened today,
may never again come your way,
again I hear what you don’t say.

Tell the truth and set your soul free,
don’t tell lies and hope no one will see.
I hear what you don’t say.

Happiness can be yours if you only try,
but hiding behind the rock I’ll never buy.
I hear what you don’t say.

Today, tomorrow and forever more will only be yours when you open the door.
I hear what you don’t say.

Why hide the truth you know as well as I there is someone that knows the truth that is by your side.
I hear what you don’t say.

Tomorrow will be better, smile
through the dark clouds.
Joy comes in the morning.
I hear what you don’t say.

Only those who have the patience to do simple things perfectly will acquire the skill to do difficult things easily. Schiller

Good temper like a sunny day, sheds a ray of brightness over everything; it is sweetener of toil and the soother of disquietude! Washington Irving

Life is a mirror: if you frown at it, it frowns back; if you smile, it returns the greeting.
