Laura Schaumburg, secretary

The Paducah/River City chapter of Business & Professional Women recently inducted officers for the 2011-2012 year.

"Our officers will continue to focus on membership development," said Jessica Koverdan, immediate past president. "They will strive to encourage all club members to have an active presence in the workplace, as well as in the community."

Officers for the 2011-2012 year are Tammy Owen, president; Rayla Bridges, president-elect; Crystal Ridenour-Reid, treasurer; and Laura Schaumburg, secretary.

The club received the Membership Overall Winner award and the Membership Highest Increase award at the BPW State Convention held this month in Bowling Green.

Business and Professional Women creates successful workplaces by focusing on issues that impact women, their families and employers. This club of professional women meets the second Tuesday of each month at noon at The Pasta House Company to network, hear from community and business leaders and participate in community service projects.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT...

Jan Mikesell

I relocated to Paducah from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where I was born and raised. I completed an undergraduate degree in Special Education/Elementary Education from Edinboro University of PA in 1998 and taught for three years. I obtained my Masters degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Pittsburgh in 2004 and worked as a Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor at the Department of Labor and Industry in Washington, PA for six years. Currently, I am a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC) and Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC-PA). Presently, I am pursuing openings in the rehabilitation counselor field.

Regarding hobbies and interests, I enjoy attending craft festivals, reading suspense/thriller books, traveling, shopping, and visiting wineries.

Deadline for nominations for Women of Achievement is August 25. For more information contact Kendra Payne at Fours Rivers Business Journal (270) 575-8600 or fourriversbusiness.com.
