

BPW/USA Virginia Allan Young Careerist Program

National Legislative Platform Statement

2008 – 2009

Young Careerist Candidates should review this document, sign at the bottom and send to the BPW/USA Virginia Allan Young Careerist Chair with official paperwork by June 30, 2009.

Preamble

The Equal Rights Amendment, as authored by Alice Paul, shall stand first, foremost and above all other items which may appear on the national platform of this Federation until equal legal rights for women and men become guaranteed in the United States Constitution, because all statutory law derives there from.

The Equal Rights Amendment

“Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.”

Platform

Economic Equity

Ensure pay equity and equal educational and economic opportunities at all stages of life; and promote affordable, quality dependent care to help ensure economic self-sufficiency for women.

Health

Ensure reproductive choice and full access to all reproductive health services and education; ensure funds for research into and protections for women's health care needs; and encourage the development of a national health care policy recognizing the special health care needs of women.

Civil Rights

Ensure equal rights and remedies for women in all phases of their lives; support affirmative action; and eliminate all forms of harassment and violence against women.

National Legislative Platform Statement:

I support the goals, objectives, mission and vision of Business and Professional Women/USA (BPW/USA). I have reviewed the National Legislative Platform and pledge that, if selected, I will not speak against the Platform items as a Representative.
